FDI Limit in Print Media

692. DR. T. SUBBARAMI REDDY:
PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA:
SHRI A. VIJAYARAGHAVAN:
SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government plan to raise 26 per cent FDI limit in print media;

(b) if so, whether the Group of Ministers looking into the various issues concerned with print media has submitted its recommendations;

(c) if so, the recommendations made and how many of them have been accepted;

(d) the steps being taken to implement them; and

(e) the details of the current status of FDI in print media?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) There is no such proposal under consideration of the Government.

(b) to (d) The Group of Ministers (GOM) has not finalized its recommendations so far. The GOM also desired that the Ministry of I&B should formulate a new policy that should set more liberal terms and conditions regarding syndication norms. At the same time, the Ministry should also bring a new proposal for amendments to the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867 to clothe itself with necessary regulatory authority to effectively implement its policies and monitor compliance.

(e) This Ministry has accorded permission for foreign investment in Companies in the print media sector as per list given in the statement.
